Introduction

Welcome to Niche is Nice 2025!

On behalf of the entire Karryon crew, thank you for being part of this showcase of bold, beautiful and brilliantly niche travel experiences across luxury, cruising, adventure and touring.

This roadshow isn't just another date in the diary – it's an event that champions the specialist suppliers, the emerging destinations, the immersive journeys and the one-of-a-kind adventures that make our industry extraordinary.

Last year's inaugural Niche is Nice boutique roadshow for travel advisors absolutely rocked – more than 300 agents turned out to explore over 30 standout travel brands in three buzzing cities. It was proof that there's a huge appetite for something different.

Now in 2025, we're taking it up a notch.

With more than 32 trailblazing exhibitors, 350-plus registered advisors across Brisbane, Sydney and Melbourne and an exciting mix of first-time suppliers and new-to-market brands, this series has officially sold out in record time – and it's all thanks to you.

At Karryon, we believe in building community, connection and collaboration – because that's what moves travel forward. And that's exactly what Niche is Nice is all about: travel professionals coming together, face to face, to grow, to share and to dream big.

So, whether you're here to network, learn, be inspired – or all of the above – we're thrilled you've joined us.

Here's to forging new partnerships, discovering something unexpected and celebrating everything that makes this industry so unique.

Let's do this – Together in Travel.

www.visitanchorage.net

Anchorage is the best of Alaska, all in one place. No other spot in this vast state is as varied or has so many iconic Alaska experiences so close at hand. Anchorage has 60 glaciers within 50 miles, views of six separate mountain ranges, over 1,500 moose in city limits, an Alaskan salmon stream downtown and over 250 miles of trails! Did we mention Chugach State Park borders Anchorage's eastern edge? Year round activity abounds with iconic experiences such as dog sledding, scenic flightseeing, Alaska Native culture and history, hiking, glacier trekking and wildlife viewing. Don't forget, we are Alaska's largest city complete with all the urban amenities you'd expect. Diverse local dining (did anybody say "Seafood?"), an incredible craft brew scene, unique shopping opportunities and of course, great nightlife.
